NOV 1

Gene & Grace Fox
Int'l Messengers - British Columbia
grace@gracefox.com

Pray for Gene as he recovers from prostate cancer treatment. This has not gone as well as hoped. We've canceled our Toronto Missions Fest booth, and he will not be traveling to Egypt November 5-15 to attend our Middle East staff conference. I (Grace) will travel to Egypt, so please pray for safety and health. More importantly, pray that I will be a good listener and a wise mentor as I meet with staff. There will be one teaching session for women only, and I've been asked to lead it and present an encouraging message. Pray that my words will come directly from the Father's heart. We're preparing to ramp up our recruiting efforts for the 2024 Evangelistic English Learning Camps. Pray that God will nudge people to get involved.

NOV 2

Warren & Dorothy Janzen
SEND Int'l - Abbotsford
wjanzen@send.org

This month SEND global leaders are gathering for training and problem solving meetings (November 4-12). In our world of incredible upheaval and complexity, please pray that we will be able to accurately identify what is happening and then analyze it through the lens of what is biblically true. War and conflict is real. The truth alongside of that is that Jesus says in Mark 13:7 "When you hear of wars and rumours of wars, do not be alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come." Pray we'll be able to place God's truth over the real events, challenges and opportunities we are facing. Pray we'll have God's perspective on what is taking place all around us and then have Holy Spirit inspired creativity to address it. Thanks for your partnership in the gospel.

Dave & Rushia Klassen
P2C (AIA) - Abbotsford
davek@athletesinaction.com

What an adventurous month. We have a community outreach and Faith night at the Lions game this month and the Canucks start their season. I will begin team chapels with both Canuck teams and there are a number of new faith believers on both teams. Please pray as we arrange Grey Cup outreach events in Hamilton for November and 2026 plans for the Soccer World Cup.

NOV 6

Ricky & Karen Sanchez
YWAM - Thailand
sierrasanchez@hotmail.com

Praise God for the national YWAM conference we just attended with our ALH family and all the Thailand YWAM workers, what a powerful time together. Please pray for much fruit as people are refilled with new vision! Please pray for 'Gem', a 17 yr. old girl at ALH who just got saved. Please pray for 'Hope', one of our 15 year old girls who just got baptized, and is now moving to live with an aunt we just discovered. Please pray for the extended family of 'JP', one of our older ALH youths, in a small village, as he shares the gospel there. Pray for Oiy, 52 yrs. old, our church member dying of colon cancer.

NOV 7

Ruth Maxwell
SIM - Abbotsford
ruth.maxwell@sim.org

Invitations to invest in the lives of the next generation of cross-cultural workers continue to come my way. Please pray for the Lord's direction and leading as I consider which ones to accept. Also, for wisdom in preparing sessions. I know the first and most important preparation is the preparation of my heart. Pray I will continually / daily walk closely with the Lord. May it always and only be Him speaking through me. Thank you for joining me in prayer.

Praise the Lord for the movie nights at Fujigaoka and Komaki churches and for the discussions afterwards. Please pray for the students to open their hearts and ears to want to know more about Jesus and have a personal relationship with Him. Please pray for the OneVoice gospel choirs I'm involved with and that the members would come to understand how much joy they bring to God when they sing to Him each week. I praise the Lord for all of you and your continued support and prayers for the ministries I'm involved in here in Nagoya. Please pray for extra wisdom and energy this Christmas season as I share the birth of Jesus with the new students.

Kent & Inga Friesen
TeachBeyond - Ukraine
kdfkentyc@yahoo.com

While in Canada this past summer, we saw a pattern of questions and comments suggesting that people thought we were in some ways relieved to be in a place which is familiar and safe. Ironically, the term safely home for us means that God has once again protected us and granted favor with luggage, flights, and health on our return to Ukraine. Peace is something we experienced this summer while visiting Canada. God has blessed us with His peace in Ukraine as well, and it attracts people. Friends in Ukraine seemed more at peace once they knew we were back. We know that the peace we have is God's answer to the prayers of many people. Thank you for your prayers and for your gifts. Praise God for His peace.

Brent & Jody Nesbitt
P2C - Abbotsford
brent.nesbitt@powertochange.org

Please pray for Justin and Brittany Hiebert (from our Campus Ministry), whose young daughter was accidentally strangled by a rope while playing in their backyard on Oct 7. She had no pulse when they found her. It is now a week later, and she is still mostly unresponsive. Next to that, my other requests seem minor. Pray that God would prepare Anilee's heart for her outreach in December, and for whatever He has for her beyond that. And pray that Jody would be offered a 3-4 day/wk permanent position with Bethesda.

J&C

Restricted Access Country

We ended up finding our house here because a local friend wanted us to live near her. Now we have our local family just across the road. We laugh together and have been able to share our hope with them. Just recently they have started to realize that our faith is strong and that there are things they can learn from us (hard for people who have only ever done things one way). Please pray with us that God will reveal himself to them through dreams and visions and that He will prepare their hearts to truly hear the hope we share.

One of the main purposes for the Matthew Training Center in Mexico is to train and send out Latinos to the nations. Pray for two couples that came for training several years ago, and have been working hard to get their finances and documents ready to leave for mission work. Mathias and Yadira from Brazil are going to Angola, and have everything ready, except for some final paperwork for her citizenship for Brazil (She is Mexican), and pray for B and C, from Colombia, going to a country in Asia. They are waiting for student visas to study the language - both couples hope to leave in November.

Tim & Gwen

There are many on both sides of the conflict in Gaza who love God, we pray for peace and protection for each one. We live about 2700 km from Gaza but have many Palestinians living here in the AP who are directly impacted by recent events. When asked what we think about the conflict, we do not engage in political discussion but can all agree that no one wins in a war and that we pray for the peace of Jerusalem and are sad to see death on both sides of the conflict. God is that sovereign that He can work out His purposes in the midst of this war but please join us in praying for a cessation of hostilities and an acknowledgement of the Prince of Peace on both sides of the border.

Amanda Doerksen
SIM - Niger
Amanda.Doerksen@sim.org

Hello CHC! Thank you very much for praying for me and the country of Niger during these past few months. Due to the coup, I left Niger in late August and spent September and part of October in Canada with my parents. I had a wonderful time with my family and was able to get a lot of work done on my Masters. In early October I returned to Niger and school started on October 25. While the coup has not been resolved yet and there are still sanctions in place, things are peaceful and calm in Niamey. The main challenges we are facing at the moment are power cuts, rising food prices, and food scarcity. Please continue to pray for the people of Niger and our students during this time.

Richard & Becky Szmuto
P2C Films - Abbotsford
richard.szmuto@p2c.com

As we cycle into the later stages of 2023, we have a few large projects we are getting ready for production, pray that we will be creative and efficient in these and that they will communicate well to further God's kingdom. Also I am working on adjusting to the new arrangement as I will be more involved with the Marketing Team which will take much of the administrative work from me, giving me more time in production and editing. Pray that this will go smoothly.

NOV 24

James & Carolanne Warkentin
P2C (Digital Strategies) - Abbotsford
james.warkentin@p2c.com

Thank you for your continued prayer for us and the Digital Strategies ministry of Power to Change. Please pray for the ongoing development of three Malaysian outreach sites being built in English, Chinese and Malay/Indonesian. These sites are contextualizations of our IssuesIFace strategy. Please also continue to pray for the Live Chat strategy that I mentioned in previous months and that we are continuing to develop. We hope this strategy will continue to grow into a thriving opportunity for website visitors to engage directly with mentors. And finally please pray for funding. There are several on the team who have low financial support. Thank you!
